SAFE SPACES TRAINING: BEST PRACTICES FOR POSITIVE YOUTH OUTCOMES

JULY 21-22, 2026 ONLINE

This training builds participant knowledge and practical understanding of how social messages, assumptions, and widely held narratives shape young people's experiences of safety, belonging, opportunity, and well-being. Participants examine how personal and cultural beliefs influence professional relationships, service delivery, and youth outcomes, and practice developmentally appropriate, relationship-centered strategies that strengthen trust, engagement, and positive youth experiences.

TRAINING CONTENT INTEGRATES CURRENT RESEARCH, DATA, YOUTH PERSPECTIVES, AND EVIDENCE-BASED YOUTH DEVELOPMENT APPROACHES.

Through interactive activities and real-world examples, participants strengthen professional accountability and reflective practice while learning to implement thoughtful and intentional approaches that enhance organizational culture, youth education and services, and desired outcomes.
